Catholic Charities

Did you know? Catholic Charities Our Kids Parent Education and Awareness Program is available to parents and caregivers and their significant others who have experienced conflict regarding custody and/or access related to their children. OKEAP helps parents develop a “business” relationship and encourages co-parents to refrain from putting children in the middle of conflict. Topics include: the impact of separation/divorce on children; child development and the implications for parenting after separation/divorce; cooperative and parallel approaches to parenting; and overview of family law as it affects custody and visitation; and conflict management and problem-solving. Groups are held throughout Western New York. Ready to connect? Call 716.896.6390. For more information on Catholic Charities and other services and programs we provide, visit www.ccwny.org. FROM THE PASTOR

1 Corinthians 12:12-30 -3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
“The Communion of Saints”

The doctrine of the “Communion of Saints” refers to the exchange of the graces and blessings between individuals here on earth, (the Church Militant) the saints in heaven, (the Church Triumphant), and the souls in purgatory, (the Church Suffering). In today’s second reading Paul describes this mutual dependence required of Christians living in union with one another. The Church has always taught this. Pope Paul VI referred to this dogma of faith when he wrote “We believe in the communion of all the faithful of Christ, whether these still make their pilgrim way on earth, whether their life over, they undergo purification or then enjoy the happiness of heaven. One and all they go to form the one Church “(Creed of the People, 30). Through the Church we are incorporated into one Christ, and He communicates His life to each of us through each of us to others.

Prayer for the Unborn

Our Lady of Guadalupe, we turn to you who are the protectress of unborn children and ask that you intercede for us, so that we may firmly resolve to join you in protecting all human life. Let our prayers be united to your perpetual motherly intercession on behalf of those whose lives are threatened, be they in the womb of their mother, on the bed of infirmity, or in the latter years of life.

May our prayers also be coupled with peaceful action which witnesses to the goodness and dignity of all human life, so that our firmness of purpose may give courage to those who are fearful and bring light to those who are blinded by sin. Encourage those who will be involved in the Pro-Life Ministry. Help them to walk closely with God and to give voice to the cry of the oppressed, in order to remind our nation of its commitment to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness for all people. O Virgin Mother of God, present our petitions to your Son and ask Him to bless us with life.
