From the Bishop Michael W. Fisher

In the face of troubles facing this world. Jesus encourages us to have faith. In His name we will gather a “Do not let your hearts be troubled” an interfaith prayer service to be held at 5p.m., Monday May 23 at Saint Martin de Porres Roman Catholic Church, 555Northampton St, Buffalo.

I invite the community to join us as our brothers and sisters of many faiths to honor the lives of those taken suddenly, and perhaps provide some solace from this devastating incident we will never forget. Please remember, especially in this heartbreaking moment for our community to love one another as Jesus has loved us.

Eternal Rest grant unto them, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace, Amen

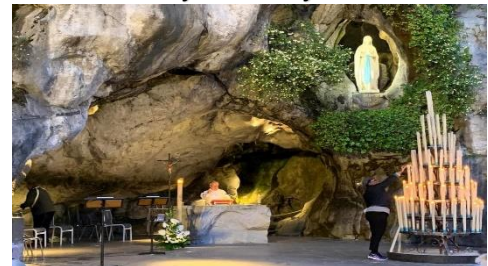

FROM THE PASTOR

Acts 15:12, 22- 29 -----6th Sunday of Easter
“Ecumenical Councils and Infallibility”

The Council of Jerusalem (today’s first reading) foreshadowed the Church’s Ecumenical Councils. These Councils are solemn assemblies of the world’s bishops, called together by the Pope, under his authority to discuss and regulate Church doctrine, discipline and pastoral matters as needed. The bishops, under the Pope, form the Magisterium or Teaching office of the Church, which can be exercised infallibly in two ways. First the “Extraordinary Magisterium” where the Pope defines doctrine “ex cathedra” (from the chair”), or at councils where the college of bishops, together with the Pope, make definitive statements concerning faith and morals. Second, when the “Ordinary Magisterium” is exercised though the regular means of universally instructing misunderstood. It doesn’t mean perfection, sinless or omniscience. Infallibility simply means that the Holy spirit prevents or protects the Magisterium of the Church from solemnly teaching error. The early Christians knew the Church was “the pillar and foundation of the truth” (1 Tim 3:15) because whoever heard the Church heard Christ (Lk 10:16), and Jesus Christ cannot teach error.

Fr. Piotr’s 18th Priestly Ordination Anniversary

Please wish Father Piotr a very happy anniversary this weekend on May 22. We wish him many more years of a happy and joyous priesthood. Thank you for all you do Father Piotr!

Lakewood Altar & Rosary Update

The Lakewood Altar & Rosary Society met on May 11. Some of the highlights were:

- Providing flowers for the altar throughout the spring and for Confirmation weekend was discussed, as well as suggestions for making things run more smoothly for next Christmas and Easter.
- Finalizing the details for our picnic. All ladies of the parish, from both of our churches are invited to the picnic on Thursday, June 9, at 6pm in the Parish Center. Sign-up sheets will be out at both churches. Hamburgers, hot dogs, condiments, water, and table service will be provided. Attendees are asked to bring a dish to pass.
- Our next business meeting will be on Wednesday, August 10, at 3:30pm in the Parish Center.
